1.0 The Procurement Depository

The Procurement Depository (also referred as “the Depository”) is a web application designed to capture, manage and report on information as described in Trinidad and Tobago’s Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Property Act 2015, as amended, (“the Act”).

1.1 Access and Best Use

The Depository can be accessed via <https://depository.oprtt.org/>.

For the best experience using this system, access the Depository using web browsers Microsoft Edge or Google Chrome.

1.2 Getting Started

The Depository is to be used by Public Bodies and Suppliers/Contractors who wish to provide goods, works, and/or services to Public Bodies of Trinidad and Tobago. This document will guide Public Bodies on using the Depository and creating Tenders and Contracts.

Visit the following link to access additional training resources: Procurement Depository – The Office of Procurement Regulation \(oprtt.org\)

3. If you have checked all policies and wish to proceed, please click Accept & Continue otherwise click Cancel to return to the login screen.

NOTE: All policies listed must be checked before you are able access the Depository system for use.

1.3 Data Entry Standards

A few data entry standards are inexplicitly expressed in the Depository system, these include:

Phone Number

All contact phone numbers entered in the system should include your country code.

Currency

All instances of monetary values in the system should be in Trinidad and Tobago Dollars (“TTD”). and exclusive of Value Added Tax (“VAT”). In the case where you must convert your currency to TTD, please use the Central Bank rates of exchange. URL: <https://www.central-bank.org.tt/>

Red Asterisk *

Throughout the system, you will encounter red asterisks next to field labels. This indicates that the field is required (data must be provided) to save the record.

List Items (Drop-down Lists)

Throughout the system, you will encounter various pre-populated drop-down list fields that would require you to select an option. These lists are not exhaustive and if you do encounter a list where your preferred option is not available for selection, do contact us at support@opr.org.tt with the name of the list and the option you would like added on. Upon internal review, we will contact you and let you know the outcome.

1.4 Navigating the System

The Depository implements sidebar menu navigation as well as the selection of icons. In various sections of the system, you will be able to view, edit, or delete data via clickable links on the `View | Edit | Delete` record:
